Dear

Help us make your business more successful in 2019/20.

The Woodstock Travel Guide team from the past twelve years is planning a 2019/2020 edition of the Guide and invite you to join us. Next year we celebrate “Community, Peace and Soulfulness”, including the 50th anniversary of the Woodstock Festival.

20,000 copies of the Guide and 35,000 copies of the map will be printed and distributed throughout the area and beyond. This is advertising money well spent by reaching as many as 50,000+ readers. The design and contents, including some history of Woodstock, will make this 50 page+ Guide another collector’s edition.

The Guide will be available in early May. Reservations, contracts and fees are due by January 19th for inclusion. We can help design simple ads at no extra cost. All listings and ads include a free web listing on our website. Help us make this a comprehensive edition.

To view current or previous guides go to: www.WoodstockGuide.com and click “Page thru the Guide” on upper left corner. Copies of the 2018/19 Guide can be picked up from the porch at Pondicherry/ Village Green B&B, 12 Tinker St., H. Houst & Son, 4 Mill Hill Rd., Westwood Metes & Bounds, 24 Mill Hill Rd., and/or the Woodstock Library, 5 Library Lane.
